

The EDCO, CASE & LABBB Collaboratives invite you to participate in:

THE ART OF SUPERVISION: ANALYZING FACTORS THAT FACILITATE PRODUCTIVE SUPERVISION presented by:

Dr. Jerome Schultz

Neuropsychologist and Consultant

November 9, 2009 12:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Follow-up session in April - Date TBD

During the first session of this workshop, participants will discuss:

- the importance of reflection in the supervision process
- the line between supervision and evaluation and formative and summative evaluation
- ethical issues in supervision
- individualization in the development of a supervisory action plan
- fixing broken supervision

Participants will leave the workshop with an action/improvement plan for supervision and a bibliography of resources. Participants are encouraged to email jeromeschultz@verizon.net with issues they would like to add to the syllabus. During the second session in April*, participants will share examples of successful supervision experiences and an example of a difficult supervision and brainstorm how to get a “fresh start” in a stale relationship.

* Participants are encouraged to attend the follow-up session in April for constructive feedback.

Presenter: Dr. Jerome Schultz, Neuropsychologist and Consultant
Audience: K - 12 administrators, specialists & directors who supervise staff
Registration: Through the office of Curriculum and Instruction in your district
Fee: $125 for the first session or $225 to attend both for CASE, EDCO, LABBB members / $155 or $275 for non-members
Location: EDCO Seefurth Center, Waltham
Register by: October 9, 2009. Registrations received beyond that date will be accepted based upon space availability.

Questions? Please call the EDCO Seefurth Center at (781) 259-3445.